HELPFUL INFORMATION

Resolve IRS disputes with mediation
The IRS' Fast Track Mediation Program lets small businesses and self-employed individuals resolve outstanding tax disputes quickly. Mediation takes about 30 to 40 days compared with months or more using regular dispute resolution channels. This is a time saver that translates into a money saver because you'll pay less in professional fees. Mediation is voluntary and you can withdraw at any time.

COMPANY STATUS Each month, your Registered Agent Watch email will inform you of your company's current status in any state where BizFilings serves as your Registered Agent and state status monitoring is available.

GOOD STANDING means your company is in compliance with necessary Secretary of State requirements as of the date of verification.

ATTENTION NEEDED means there is a potential issue with your company's standing that requires your attention. Action may be necessary to maintain or restore a Good Standing status.

ON HOLD means there is a past due balance for your Registered Agent service. Once your account is current with BizFilings, your company's access to services will be re-activated.

NOT AVAILABLE means that company status monitoring is not available for your company and/or state at this time.
